

When They Say, You Say

Olivia Turner, director of American Victims of Abortion, teaches how to better defend and promote the pro-life position by first understanding pro-abortion propaganda and then by choosing the most effective arguments and language to promote pro-life's value system.

Ep 1 - Words That Can Save Lives

An explanation of the power of sincerely listening to another person's argument, and the powerful role precise language plays when presenting a pro-life response.

Monday, January 8 at 9:00 pm; Tuesday, January 9 at 2:00 am and 8:00 am (30 mins)

Ep 2 - Lies That Dehumanise the Baby

An analysis of many of the lies and language used to dehumanise unborn children, and a demonstration of how the pro-life movement can combat these falsehoods.

Tuesday, January 9 at 9:00 pm; Wednesday, January 10 at 2:00 am and 8:00 am (30 mins)

Ep 3 - Every Child a Wanted Child

Dispelling claims of over-population and its supposed link to poverty, as well as the issue of adoption.

Wednesday, January 10 at 9:00 pm; Thursday, January 11 at 2:00 am and 8:00 am (30 mins).

Ep 4 - The Back Alley and Hard Cases

A look at common pro-abortion arguments about "back alley abortions", as well as what to say when they insist abortion should be kept legal when the women's life is endangered.

Thursday, January 11 at 9:00 pm; Friday, January 12 at 2:00 am and 8:00 am (30 mins)

Ep 5 - When It Gets Personal

A final lesson on ways to promote pro-life issues by listening and responding with compassion, sincerity, and a smile.

Friday, January 12 at 9:00 pm; Saturday, January 13 at 2:00 am and 8:00 am (30 mins)
